

Elkhart County Highway Personnel are available to speak to your group or organization on a variety of subjects. Topics include:

- Development or the development process
- Highway funding/10 Year planning for infrastructure
- Updates on any current or future road or bridge projects
- Technology integration into transportation
- Any other relevant transportation industry matter

Our staff is committed to training and staying up to date on the latest developments in the transportation industry. As a public service effort, our speakers are available free of charge to Elkhart County groups and organizations. For more information please call the Highway Department at 533-0538, and ask for Jeff Taylor, Highway Manager.

Our staff available for speaking engagements is as follows:

Jay Grossman, P.E., County Engineer

Topics include traffic signal operation, CR17 traffic signal fiber connectivity, bike and pedestrian paths

Jeff Taylor, SR/WA, Manager

Topics include CR17 Corridor, right of way acquisition and relocation, long range transportation planning, highway administration

Tom Rushlow, P.E., Project Engineer

Topics include Six Span Bridge/CR10 project, various small bridges throughout the county, wetland mitigation

Katie Niblock, P.E., Project Engineer

Topics include new land development, proposed roundabout at CR6/Ash intersection

Justin Zimmer, E.I., Project Engineer

Topics include road count inventory, CR4 over Christiana Creek